Greater Spirit Of Cooperation Shown in Community

By TIMOTHEUS T.
OUR COMMUNITY: Things have been going on the past few weeks that should make us proud of our community and the people in it.

And when I say "community" I do not mean Harrisburg. I mean our bigger community of Saline county and some of its adjacent areas.

Recently there has been a greater spirit of co-operation, both among the people of Harrisburg and Eldorado, and between Harrisburg people and people of other towns that has been witnessed in these parts for a long time. Maybe more than at any time.

Can't come right out and say too much now but men have been working hard and fast on industrial development, and even if nothing comes of things that have hopes up high right now, the area has made big strides in preparing for other things that might come up and it has been shown that people can work together harmoniously and intelligently.

I can say this much, though: A group of nine including civic leaders from Harrisburg and Eldorado and representatives of Southern Illinois University and the Central Illinois Public Service Co. went to Springfield last week and persuaded an officer of the industrial company to come to Harrisburg.

He was here one evening looking over prospects and meeting with leaders, then came back the following day and was shown our schools and churches and other things of civic importance. He left impressed.

Yes, we should be proud. And let us show a visible pride in our community because it will help. It will help a lot.

Right now is a time to boost our towns. You who work in the stores, in the restaurants, in the hotels and motels, and in the service stations. The business men. The professional men. The laboring men. Be alert and courteous when strangers approach. Answer their questions without injecting any defeatism. Be cordial. Smile.

For we know not who the stranger will be. He might be a scout for an industrial firm. Probably he won't buy, he might, and we can't take chances.

The past has shown that when industries show an interest in an area, they send men into the area as total strangers to find the attitude of the man or woman on the street toward the community in which he lives. Things have developed to the point where such an action might happen at any time now right here.

So when you get a chance, boost your town, the highways, the water supplies, the schools, the churches; anything that might help. You never can tell, some little thing you say might be the clincher.

Mother Abandons Children with Baby Sitter

Ernestine Brown of Harrisburg, who left her three small children with a baby sitter Nov. 10, and hasn't returned yet, had the children taken from her in county court Saturday.

County Judge Trafton Dennis issued a temporary order giving the children to two of Mrs. Brown's sisters. State's Attorney Robert V. W. son issued a warrant charging her with child abandonment and had a copy of the warrant sent to Chicago for her arrest. She is believed in Chicago.

Mrs. Brown had called in a 14-year-old baby sitter to stay with the children while she went out and did not return.

Shoppers Take Advantage of Crowded Stores

Mink Stole Stolen; Two Women Fined For Taking Items

With stores being crowded with holiday shoppers, a mink stole disappeared from Myrons and two persons pleaded guilty to shoplifting at other places.

Eli Lasersohn, owner of the women's apparel store, said that the stole, valued at $1,095, was taken from the store Thursday evening. He said that he has some identit, on who took the piece of merchandise.

Pleading guilty to charges of shoplifting when arraigned before Justice of the Peace O. L. Woods were two out-of-town women. Saturday Leitha Harris of Norris City pleaded guilty to the charge after she had taken things from Kresge's and Woolworth's stores and was fined $50 and costs.

Also fined $50 and costs was Ruth Evans of Tunnel Hill, who was arrested after she was stopped with items taken out of the Kresge store.

Guy Price, business agent of Local 896, Retail Clerks International association, today urged clerks to be extremely careful in accepting checks for purchases. That they should know or have identity of the check writer or endorser.

Mrs. Oliver Lewis Dies At Her Home Near Stonefort

Mrs. Oliver (Katie) Lewis, 64, died at her home near Stonefort Saturday evening, about 6:30. She had been in poor health for several months, and was under medical care.

She was the daughter of the late Nathaniel and Mary Jane Crank, of Pope county, and had lived near Golconda until her marriage with Mr. Lewis in 1915. Since her marriage, her home has been in the Stonefort community of Saline county.

She is survived by her husband, and the following children: Ray Max Lewis, Palatine, Ill., Charles Lewis, Jonesboro, Lester Lewis, Calumet City, Mrs. Myrtle Walker, Stonefort, Mrs. Laura Streich, Stoughton, Wis., Harry V. Lewis, Greenup, Ill. Hubert Lewis, who lives at home. Mrs. Alice Ruth Brown, Rummerville, Pa., Claud H. Lewis, who is attending college at Kirksville, Mo., and Carroll Lewis, Hammond, Ind. Mrs. Carl DeVard of Marion, is a stepdaughter, and Walter Crank, Indianapolis, is a brother. She had one nephew, Coy Crank of Indianapolis, and twenty-four grandchildren.

The body will be lying in state at the Thornton funeral home in Stonefort, until funeral time, Wednesday, 10:30 a. m.

Services will be held at the Old Stonefort Seventh Day Baptist church, Pastor Addiso Appel, of the Farina church, in charge, assisted by Pastor Carlos McSparr of the Stonefort church. Burial will be at Sulphur Springs cemetery near Raum in Pope county.

Horace Mann School Pilfered

The Horace Mann school was broken into late yesterday by persons who could have caused a disastrous fire in the building, Chief of Police Ross Lane said today.

Lane said desk drawers in almost every room were pilfered. Paper in some of the desks was ignited and some paper was placed in piles on the floor and set afire.

Paper was strewn throughout the building and a trail of paper led from the school south on Granger past Poular, he stated. Lane said a $25 reward was being offered for information which could lead to those who did it.

Virgil Manker, 52, Dies At His Home Near Galatia

Virgil Manker, 52, died in his home north of Galatia at 8 a. m. today. Mr. Manker was a miner and employee at Sesser. He was a member of the Lebanon church where he was superintendent of the Sunday school and was also a member of the Galatia Masonic Lodge, A. F. and A. M. No. 684.

The body will lie in state at the Courtney funeral home tonight and funeral plans will be announced later.

He is survived by his wife, Ethel; his daughter, Mrs. Mary Elton Howton Granite City and his grandson Jeffrey Keith Howton. He is also survived by his sister, Mrs. Marie Leiff, Galatia; his half-sister, Mrs. Geneva Hollada; his half-brother, James Manker, Sesser; two step-brothers, O. L. ones, East St. Louis, and Leman Jones, Thompsonville and his stepmother, Mrs. Stella Manker of Galatia.

No Withdrawals in Commissioner Race

Deadline has passed for withdrawals with nobody drawing from the commissioner race, City Clerk Olive Patterson said today. Sunday was the last day to withdraw.

In the race to fill the vacancy on the council are Lee Morse, John H. L. Parish and Orval Hudnell.

The primary election, at which two of the three will be nominated, will be held Jan. 14. The general election, at which one of these two will be elected to fill the Don Williams vacancy, will be March 11.

Argue Whether to Shoot Them

Thugs Kidnap Two Policemen

COLLINSVILLE, Ill. (UP)—Four thugs kidnaped two policemen, handcuffed them to a tree and argued about killing them in an early morning fog, it was reported today.

A conversation in Italian probably saved the lives of Dominic Gfrore, 36, a merchant policeman, and John Cagnola, 32, a member of the Collinsville police department.

Gfrore said he and Cagnola were patrolling Collinsville in a heavy fog early Sunday morning. Four men in another car hailed them to ask directions to a "hydro-electric plant," Gfrore said.

West Still Holds Margin Of Power, Eisenhower Tells NATO

At Senate Hearing

Navy Official Charges Snyder Ordered Public Firing of Test

WASHINGTON (UP)—Assistant Navy Secretary Garrison Norton said today the Navy wanted the recent unsuccessful firing of its test satellite carried out without publicity because he believed it "quite likely" would fail.

But Norton said he was overruled by Assistant Defense Secretary Murray Snyder. He told Senate investigators that Snyder directed that the Navy, which controlled the Vanguard satellite project, "must be completely responsive to questions of the press."

Snyder told the Navy it "could not conduct the project, as we wanted to, in privacy," Norton testified before the Senate Preparedness subcommittee.

Norton said he believed — and had told Snyder — that the entire missiles program, particularly test firings, should be carried out in privacy.

"I told him that I thought it

Girard Boomed on Return to U. S.

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Pvt. William S. Girard, convicted in a celebrated Japanese manslaughter trial, came home to a jeering reception today.

The 22-year-old Illinois soldier, broken in rank and under suspended sentence for killing a Japanese woman shell scavenger arrived on the transport Anderson with his pretty Japanese wife, Haru Candi Sueyama, 30.

As he descended the gangway, troops lining the rail and the onlookers on the Ft. Mason pier sent up a loud round of boos. His wife remained impassive but Girard whirled back toward the ship and yelled "Yeah, you too!"

He refused to talk to reporters because he said he has "been crucified by the press." However, he was unsuccessful in ducking photographers.

Death Takes Miss Bertha Reynolds

Miss Bertha Reynolds, 64, resident of 1327 South Washington street, Harrisburg, died in her home at 2 p. m. Sunday. Miss Reynolds is survived by her brother, George Reynolds, and her sister, Miss Verbie Reynolds, both of Harrisburg.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Spring Valley church with Rev. Earl Vaughn officiating. The body is in the care of the Gibbons funeral home and will be taken to the family home today to lie in state until the funeral.

Kiwanians to Hold Christmas Party for Orphans Tuesday Night

Members of the Kiwanis club will entertain children from the Carmi Baptist Children's home at a Christmas party to be held at the Masonic temple beginning at 6 p. m. Kiwanians and their wives will present gifts to the children at this annual affair by the club.

was against the safety of our nation to do it in public," Norton said.

Chairman Lyndon B. Johnson and other subcommittee members have been sharply critical of the fanfare of publicity on the abortive test firing of a small satellite at Cape Canaveral, Fla., recently.

Norton and Lt. Gen. Verne J. McCaul, acting Marine Corps commandant, testified at a resumption of the subcommittee's hearings on the lag in the U. S. missile and satellite programs.

They testified that the Navy and Marine Corps need more money to meet Russia's challenge in new weapons.

There were these other developments on the missile satellite front:

—Vice President Richard M. Nixon told newsmen at a background conference on missiles that the relative military strength of Russia and the United States should be assessed "with a good dose of realism." He said the U. S. missile industry is trying to do in 3 years what Russia's accomplished in 6 to 10 years.

Propose Space Agency
—Nixon also said "there can be no sacred cows" in national defense and there should be a full airing of any inter-service rivalries that might have impaired defense.

—Johnson called for an early administration decision on proposals for a new government agency to direct the drive for mastery of space.

—Sen. John C. Stennis, subcommittee chairman, demanded the replacement of William M. Holaday, Pentagon missiles chief, by someone possessing what he termed the vision and authority to get a space weapons program underway immediately.

Rites Today for Nelson Child

Donald Allen Nelson, 16 months old son of John F. and Joann Nelson of Memphis Tennessee, died in a Memphis hospital at 8:30 p. m. Friday. The infant is survived by his grandmother, Mrs. Ruby Nelson, grocer at Pankeyville, in addition to the parents.

There was a brief service in the Gibbons funeral chapel at 2 p. m. today with Rev. Carl Downey officiating. Burial was in the Spring Valley cemetery.

Fire Damages Land Street Home

Fire around 1 p. m. Sunday did extensive damage to a residence at 705 South Land street.

The house was occupied by the Carlos Brasher family and was owned by James Robinson.

Harrisburg Fireman Harvey Hicks said the first started in the kitchen. There was considerable fire damage to the kitchen and smoke damage to the entire house, he stated.

Injured in Fall

Miss Haitie Wertz was confined over the week-end at the Harrisburg hospital due to injuries suffered in a fall at the residence of Mrs. Daisy M. Seright, where she has made her home for several years. She suffered a broken left arm and from shock.

IKE ARRIVES FOR NATO SUMMIT CONFERENCE—French Premier Felix Gaillard, left, listens intently as President Eisenhower makes a formal statement at Orly Field, Paris, en route to the NATO summit conference. The President expressed belief that the Atlantic Pact nations would meet the challenge of Russia "effectively" and "in unity."

10 Mispronunciations

Eisenhower Shows Difficulty in Pronouncing Words in Paris Talk

By MERRIMAN SMITH

United Press White House Writer

PARIS (UP)—President Eisenhower showed some difficulty in pronouncing certain words today in his 18-minute speech at the opening session of the NATO council. The difficulty was not serious but there were at least 10 noticeable mispronunciations.

The President did not seem at all disturbed by the situation.

On Nov. 25 Eisenhower suffered a cerebral occlusion in Washington due to either a clot or a spasm in one of the smaller blood vessels of the brain.

One of the after-effects of the illness was a slight difficulty in selecting or pronouncing certain words.

In dozens of speeches even before this most recent illness the President also frequently stumbled on words and repeated or reworded some phrases.

Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder, the President's physician, told the United Press that he thought the chief executive "slurred" only one word in his speech this morning—"abhorrent."

"Do you think that this or some of his other difficulties with words had anything to do with his recent illness?" Snyder was asked.

"Not necessarily," he replied.

"How has the President been bearing up under the burdens of this conference?"

"Fine, very fine," Snyder told this reporter with a broad smile. "You saw him this morning at the Palais de Chaillot. You saw how he looked. Didn't you think so?"

Early in the speech, which the President read from small typed sheets, the President first stumbled on the word "assets." He placed the accent on the last syllable then changed his mind and repeated the word with the first syllable accented.

He got genuinely tangled up on "abhorrent" and smiled fleetingly as he finally abandoned the word after two tries and proceeded with his address.

He also had what seemed to be difficulty in pronouncing the words "assumption . . . dictate . . . inevitable . . . decay . . . irresistible."

Some Americans here for the conference and familiar with Eisenhower's pre-illness manner of speech attached no great significance to most of the mispronunciations and stumbles today. On the contrary, they were impressed by the force with which the chief executive spoke.

Must Work to Maintain Lead, President Says

Uses Full Weight Of Personal Prestige At Opening Session

PARIS (UP)—President Eisenhower told the opening session of the first NATO summit conference today the West still holds "the margin of power."

But he said the Western nations "must work to maintain this lead over the Communist bloc" because the triumph of freedom over despotism is not inevitable.

"It takes a lot of hard work and sacrifice by a lot of people to bring about the inevitable," he declared.

The President said in his keynote speech the Atlantic alliance nations are willing to join the Soviet Union in bringing "under rational control in the common interest" what he termed "vast physical forces which cast a pall over the world."

Calls For Strength

"Until that can be done," Eisenhower said, "we must continue to create and sustain within the free world the necessary strength to make certain of the common security. All of us must have the assurance that the strength will be used to sustain peace and freedom."

"We are in a fast-running current of the great stream of history," he said. "Heroic efforts will long be needed to steer the world toward true peace."

"The forces arrayed against us are formidable but not irresistible."

Eisenhower's address set the tone for the meeting of the chiefs of state of the NATO alliance who have gathered here to seek an answer to recent Soviet scientific and diplomatic successes.

Meets With Macmillan

He met first with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan to align Anglo-American policies and then used the full weight of his immense personal prestige in a speech aimed at infusing the ailing alliance with new strength and unity.

Authoritative sources indicated Eisenhower's opening statement would leave the three-day, 15-nation meeting into an agreement on the future setting up of U. S. missile bases in Western Europe—the key issue facing the conference.

Eisenhower spoke in the modernistic, box-like Chaillot Palace NATO headquarters just across the Seine from the Eiffel Tower. He spoke as the only one of the 15 heads of government present who is also chief of state.

Zeigler Condition Still Critical; Slight Improvement

John Zeigler, 15-year-old Harrisburg youth, is still in a critical condition in a Kirksville, Mo., hospital, but is showing a little improvement and now there is some hope for his recovery.

His father, Lawrence Logsdon, and his uncle, L. G. Martin, came home last night and his father will return to Missouri in the morning. His mother is remaining at the bedside.

Mr. Logsdon said the boy is still unconscious but that there were indications he was improving. An operation scheduled for Saturday to relieve a pressure on the brain was postponed because of the indications.

New Look at Nixon

EDITORIAL BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

Despite the encouraging medical reports on President Eisenhower, it is perhaps inevitable after his three illnesses that Vice President Nixon, the man standing in the wings, should get a hard, fresh look from all sides.

Most of the new testimony agrees on this point: Nixon today is a modern or "Eisenhower" Republican. If his utterances of recent months are an accurate reflection, he is indeed perhaps a bit more liberal on the domestic front than the President himself.

This situation, of course, makes him more generally acceptable in the Republican party than was the case before. Some conservatives may feel he has deserted them, but others may persuade themselves that Nixon's old conservatism will show when the test of battle comes.

The vice president cannot say, however, that he has converted his enemies in the Democratic camp, or even within his own party.

There is still evidence that his qualifications for the highest office are gravely doubted in some quarters. Here and there this is simply a matter of his youth. But there is more.

His critics believe he is an opportunistic, that he plays too rough in campaign time, that his convictions are not sincerely held.

Certain astute political observers see in this an oddity. For the sins with which Nixon is charged are commonplace in politics.
Normally there is forgiveness. But Nixon's enemies do not forgive.

He must be puzzled at times to find himself so long and continuously assailed for practices that are forgotten in others.

One thing all of us have to realize. There is risk of serious midjudgment if we hold too rigidly to old attitudes. Politicians, like the times, change. They are changed by events, by the experiences of office, by contact with other men.

We who hold attitudes toward politicians must be willing to recognize genuine change. The key, naturally, is the word "genuine." But we cannot do our job as voters if we close our minds to real change when it happens.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

Drew Pearson says: Ike prefers to die with his boots on;
"Satchmo" Armstrong yearns to blow trumpet behind Iron Curtain; "Satchmo" repents what he said about Ike just before Little Rock.

WASHINGTON—Close friends of President Eisenhower say he has made up his mind to face the duties of President as a soldier on the firing line and die with his boots on, if necessary.

They say this was partly behind his decision to fly to Paris for the vital, though grueling meeting of NATO nations. Also a factor was his very quick recovery from the minor stroke suffered before Thanksgiving. The doctors who examined the president have confided to their professional colleagues that his recovery has been much more rapid than expected, though the chances of another stroke at his age are great.

The president, though fully aware of this hazard, feels that he should proceed with the duties of the presidency. Hence the trip to Paris.

Whether he will endeavor to assume the full duties remains to be seen. Actually, he has been absent from the White House two full years out of his five years in office, most of it ill or vacationing.
And even his close friends admit it is impossible to conduct the intricate, complicated affairs of the United States on a part-time basis.

If, however, President Eisenhower should swing into a full White House work load, they fear the results on his health might be serious.

At times in the past the president has given some indication that he might like to retire. But currently that thought seems to have been put aside. Certainly there will be no thought of retirement while the president is under criticism for our scientific defeats at the hands of Russia.

One of the most marked characteristics in Mr. Eisenhower's make-up is his desire to be liked.
And he is not going to retire while under fire or when his popularity is in question. He would far rather pass out of office, like an old soldier, with his boots on.

"SATCHMO" ARMSTRONG BEHIND THE CURTAIN

It isn't generally known, but Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong is dying for a State Department invitation to blow his golden trumpet behind the Iron Curtain.

This is true despite Louis's blast at President Eisenhower during the Little Rock crisis that Ike was "two-faced" and "has no guts." At that time, "Satchmo" was so angry he wouldn't think of going to Soviet Russia for the U. S. government.

Since Ike sent troops into Little Rock, all that is now forgotten.
"Don't get me wrong," Armstrong said recently. "What I'm against is all the head-whipping.
But the situation is improving. And I love Eisenhower. I love that man."

"I'll say something else. My people have a better chance in the United States than at any place in the world."

Now at New York's Copacabana after a triumphant Latin American tour, "Satchmo" nourishes a compelling desire to make an Iron Curtain tour for Uncle Sam. He figures he could do a lot to erase Communist propaganda about the status of the Negro in America.

On his South American swing, Louis gave 67 concerts in five countries. He got $80,000, plus expenses, for a four-week appearance in Buenos Aires, was pictured on the front pages of leading newspapers everywhere he went. In Brazil he and his wife had lunch at the presidential mansion with President Kubitschek. Mobs were so big that in Chile the Armstrong entourage had to be protected at the airport by 250 police and 40 detectives.

That wasn't all. At a time when the Soviet Sputniks were making the U. S. look silly on the front pages of newspapers all over the globe, "Satchmo" managed to get his picture on the covers of 22 Latin American magazines. American diplomats, realizing the timeliness of his tour, threw banquets for "Satchmo" in every capital he visited. In Venezuela Louis played at the home of President Jimenez.

But for the orphan boy from New Orleans, one desire remains:
is in question. He would far rather pass out of office, like an old soldier, with his boots on.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

The State Department has never offered to send Armstrong behind the Iron Curtain. The idea was merely in the talking stage when Louis issued his blast against Ike over Little Rock. All the State Department offered was to contribute some money to Satchmo's personal South American tour, provided he would extend it to out-of-the-way cities and pay part of the extra expense himself.
Announcement by right-wing Sen.
William Jenner (R., Ind.) that he won't seek re-election recalls an expression long popular with Indiana politicians. "You've heard of Bill Jenner," the saying goes, "But I'll bet you've never heard of a Jenner Bill." . . . Eddie Roddan, astute adviser to Jim Farley and ghost writer of the Farley book, is now master-minding ex-Sen. Bill Benton's plan to come back to the Senate from Connecticut. . . . Douglas Dillon, the big Dillon, read investment banker, has become so potent in the State Department that, if Dulles should resign tomorrow, Eisenhower probably would pick him as the new secretary of state. Chris Herter, ex-governor of Massachusetts, now undersecretary of state, is most unhappy about Dulles's lack of imagination. He won't admit it publicly, but he feels American policy is bogged down.

Some people aren't naturally stupid. You can tell they have been practicing.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—
Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.
Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"
The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.
This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H* At your druggist. Money back guarantee.

SIU Coed, Illinois' Youngest JP, to Appear On 'Tell the Truth'

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Pretty Pat Dwyer, the Southern Illinois University coed who is Illinois' youngest justice of the peace, is scheduled to appear on CBS-TV's "To Tell the Truth" program next Tuesday evening, Dec. 17.

Miss Dwyer will leave from St. Louis by plane Saturday and plans to spend about a week in New York.

The 22-year-old law student was elected to the JP job last April and hasn't had a single appeal from her decisions. She holds court in her home and at the office of Carbondale Attorney John Lannin where she is employed as a secretary between classes.

On the TV show, a panel of experts will try to determine which of three guests giving the same name is really Pat Dwyer. Among the stations carrying the show at 8 p. m. on Tuesday are KFVS-TV, Cape Girardeau, Channel 12.

Productive Sow

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — (UP) — When Robert Schwam's Duroc sow gave birth to 15 piglets in February 1956, Schwam was happy over the good farrow. But the sow was just getting started. In three successive six-month periods, she had litters of 17, 12, and 18 — for a total of 62.

THE STORY: After his interview with Wayne Howell and his bride, Sandra, Private Investigator Jim Bennett, finds Honey Campbell near the cabin. It is obvious that Honey is in love with Wayne.

***

THE fear faded from her eyes and she managed a little uncertain laugh. She was wearing white shorts and a thin yellow short-sleeved sweater which blended nicely with her golden skin and brown hair. "Hello, Mr. Bennett," she said with a half embarrassed smile.

"Hi, Honey. What did you figure on slugging me with?" She stepped out to the path. "If I slugged anyone, it would be her." She moved her head in the direction of the cottage I'd just left.

"You were going to see Wayne?" She gazed at me defiantly. "Anything wrong with that?"

"No, but you'll have competition. Sandra is there, too." "She is?" Her eyes widened. "Wayne told me she was going into Cleveland today, to do some shopping."

I touched her arm. "Honey, Wayne and Sandra are married." She looked at me quickly, pain and shock in her gray eyes. "That can't be true."

"No," she said sharply. "Wayne surely knows that all she cares about is the money, the trust fund. He told me about it, and he's too—too innocent to realize . . ." She broke off, and then said firmly, "She can't have him."

"She's got him," I said. "Come on."

She walked along the path beside me. I glanced at her, saw that her lips were compressed and that she was fighting to control her emotions.

I saw the determined set of her chin. "How did you get out here?" "I rode my bike—our old car is being repaired." She sighed. "It was a long ride—for nothing."

"I'll take you back to town."

"All right," she said absently, and walked silently beside me until we reached the pink stucco hotel on the beach. A red bicycle was leaning against a corner of a shed in the rear. I unlocked the trunk of the car, lifted the bicycle inside. The lid wouldn't close, but the bike would ride safely for the few miles into Lakeport. I opened the door for Honey Campbell. She got in without speaking and we drove up the road.

When we were entering the fringes of Lakeport I made a feeble attempt at jocularly "Where to, madam?"

She looked at me suddenly, as if she'd forgotten that I was in the car with her, and smiled. I thought then that she was one of the prettiest girls I'd ever met. Not pretty-pretty, but nice pretty, wholesome, if you know what I mean. "It's almost time for lunch," she said. "Let's go to the Harbor House. I'll buy you a drink, for giving me a lift to town."

"I'll buy the drink," I told her.

JUST as our drinks arrived, Hugo Howell and Ambrose Lott entered the bar from the street. I ducked down in the booth a little, because I didn't want Howell to start asking me questions in front of Honey Campbell. They sat at the bar with their backs to us and Howell's rasping voice could be heard all over the room. Otto's expression grew suddenly cold and controlled, but Howell paid no attention to the bartender. I turned my attention to Honey Campbell.

She raised her head and her gaze was very direct. "This is none of my business, I know, but I hope you don't mind if I ask: why were you out there?"

I had an answer ready. "I'm doing a little legal work for Mr. Howell in connection with Wayne's trust fund."

She frowned faintly. "Then you're a lawyer, too?"

"Yes," I said, which technically correct.

"Did Wayne mention me when you talked to him?"

"No, I'm sorry to say."

Fog Blanket Covers Midwest

By United Press

A wave of mild, moist air over spread most of the country today, shrouding the Ohio Valley in heavy fog and bringing rain to other sections.

The overnight fog blanket reached from eastern Kansas through Missouri, across the Ohio Valley and into lower Michigan.

The fog, which is expected to last until mid-morning in some areas, made driving hazardous throughout the region.

Light showers hit the eastern third of the nation during the night, occurring from northern Georgia into the lower Great Lakes and east to New England. The rain changed to light snow in northern New England.

More than 95 per cent of Kansas is devoted to farmland.

TV Quiz Winners Hang On to Money

NEW YORK (UP)—What would you do if you became one of those TV-created American folk heroes known as quiz show big money winners?

If the past is any guide, chances are you'd spend the loot wisely or not at all.

Up-dating the doings of the brainy bankbusters, we find that Charles Van Doren, who left "Twenty One" with $129,000, now has a wife, a more sumptuous apartment in Manhattan, a $50,000-a-year contract with NBC as a consultant on educational programming, and is writing a book. He still teaches literature at Columbia, where his salary was raised $100 to $4,500.

Policeman Lectures

The first winner on $64,000 "Question," New York patrolman Redmond O'Hanlon, a Shakespeare expert, used part of his $16,000 to enlarge his home and buy a station wagon. He retires from the force in eight years and then plans to become a college professor. Since winning in June, 1955, O'Hanlon has in his spare time delivered lectures and written a book on "The Bard."

Showgirl Barbara Hall, another Shakespearean authority, banked her $64,000 winnings. She is now rehearsing for her first part in a "legit" Broadway production.

Marine Capt. Richard McCutchen, a cooking expert and the first top winner on $64,000 "Question," resigned from the Marines last August to join an Ohio tool manufacturing firm. He bought a home at Galion, Ohio, and set up a fund for his children.

Finances Daughter's Wedding Gino Prato, the opera loving New York shoemaker who won $32,000 on "Question," financed his daughter's wedding and a tamily visit to Italy. He returned to a $10,000-a-year job as "good will ambassador" for a manufacturer of heels. Gino employs another shoemaker to run his shop and still lives in the modest apartment he rented before all this happened.

The biggest TV money winner to date, 11-year-old Robert Strom, had his $224,000 placed in a trust fund that should take care of his future needs. Jockey Billy Pearson, whose knowledge of art won him a total of $96,000, spent some of the loot on valuable works of art and a yacht. He plans a "round-the-world trip aboard the yacht."

Tii Late

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — (UP) — An absent-minded former guest of the Tontine mailed his key back, but the postmaster said it was "just a little late." The hotel was razed in 1912 to make room for the present post office.

Authoress Offers Tips to Working Girl

BY ALFRED LEECH

United Press Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO (UP)—Susan Rogers, who writes a book on "How to Get Along with the Boss," would rather work for herself.

As a working girl, she said, she never made much money.

Now she's a free lance writer and she has two more books forth coming, "The Fine Art of Super-vising Women" and "How to Sell to Women."

Miss Rogers offered these tips to the working girl, based on her own experience and interviews with scores of business executives while gathering data for her books:

—Don't eat or put on makeup at your desk.
—Don't indulge in office gossip.
—Don't abuse the coffee break

"Most employers today recognize that the coffee break boosts morale and efficiency," she said. "But if you want to get in the boss' hair just stay away too long."

Miss Rogers said she has no statistics to back it up, but she's convinced that "there's entirely too much drinking" among white collar girls.

"I know quite a few who take naps at coffee breaks and lunch," she said. "Some of them are on the way to becoming alcoholics."

Emotional stability, Miss Rogers said, is one of the prime requisites an employer looks for in hiring.

"Nobody wants a flibberty-gibbet female," she said. "A good secretary must have poise and be able to respond to business pressure calmly."

"And no employer wants a gossip, especially for a secretary. So a girl must be able to keep her mouth shut, something a lot of them find difficult."

Women are prone to petty jealousies, Miss Rogers said, and they must overcome it.

"If there's anything a man can't stand it's an obvious display of feminine antagonism," she said.

The working girl should dress appropriately, with the emphasis on simplicity and basic colors, and she should keep jewelry to a minimum, Miss Rogers said.

"And before she puts on her hat to dash for the 5:06 she should ask the boss if there's anything else she can do."

What should a girl do if the boss makes a pass?

"She has two alternatives," Miss Rogers said.

"She can run or stand still, depending on what she wants."

Hawks Whip Lakers, 138-118

By United Press

Stopping the St. Louis Hawks isn't simply a matter of stopping Bob Pettit, as the Minneapolis Lakers found out to their sorrow.

The Hawks handed the Lakers a 138-118 beating Sunday in Minneapolis, one of the worst Laker losses in history. Pettit, the Hawk scoring ace, was "held" to 17 points — but ex-Kentucky star Cliff Hagan stunned the Lakers with 40 points.

The Hawks' victory increased their lead in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association to 5 1-2 games over Cincinnati.

In other Sunday games, the Syracuse Nationals beat Cincinnati for the second time in two nights, 109-83, and the New York Knicks rallied to beat Detroit, 116-109.

Williams Wins Batting Crown

CHICAGO (UP)—Ted Williams of the Red Sox picked up his fifth American League batting crown today for a 388 average that was the highest mark in the majors since 1941 when he, himself, hit .406.

The 39-year-old Williams, oldest player ever to win the title in the history of the league, did it with a flourish, batting a near-incredible .632 during the final month of the campaign.

Williams collected 163 hits in 420 official times, a record to official figures released by the House News Bureau.

The two other "jewels" in baseball's triple crown went to slugging Roy Sievers of Washington, who led the league in runs batted in with 114, and in home runs with 42.

Three Mothers Await Permits To Visit China

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three American mothers are awaiting a go-ahead from the Chinese Reds to pay Christmas visits to their sons imprisoned in Communist China, it was disclosed today.

The State Department, reversing previous policy, recently agreed to permit close relatives of six Americans jailed in Red China to visit their kin.

Mothers of two of the Americans have received U. S. passports for China, it was learned. A third is awaiting Communist permission before asking to have her passport validated for travel to the Red China mainland.

The three mothers are: —Mrs. Mary V. Downey, of 433 Monroe St., New Britain, Conn., whose son, John, a former civilian employe of the Army, was sentenced to life imprisonment for alleged spying. His brother, William Downey, said his mother hasn't heard from the Red Chinese and "nothing definite is set" on her trip.

—Mrs. Philip D. Fecteau, of 15 Wyman St., Lynn, Mass., whose son Richard, was sentenced to 20 years in jail also on alleged spy charges. Mrs. Fecteau said she is waiting for a visa from Red China. She applied for one about two weeks ago to the Chinese Red Cross. The American Red Cross originally made the application but it was turned down.

—Mrs. Hugh F. Redmond, of 43 Argyle Terrace, Yonkers, N. Y., whose son Hugh was arrested in Shanghai April 21, 1951, and sentenced to life imprisonment for alleged spying. Mrs. Redmond said she has applied for a Red Chinese visa and will wait to see whether she gets it before applying for a U. S. passport.

All-Out Search For Missing Girl

SYCAMORE, Ill. (AP) — About 17,000 families in DeKalb County will be asked to search their property in an all-out effort to find the body of missing 7-year-old Maria Ridulph.

Sheriff Al Deisz Sunday began sending out postcards to nearly every county resident virtually ordering them to search their property within 24 hours after receipt. The cards warn that failure to comply will mean that "our" searchers will check the private property. Each family is asked to return a second postcard confirming that the property has been personally checked.

Maria vanished the night of Dec. 8 when a man who called himself "Johnny" offered her a "piggy-back" ride. Federal and local authorities have been unable to find a trace of the girl despite nearly two weeks of intensive investigation.

West Still Holds Margin Of Power: Eisenhower

Sunday schedule, appearing fit despite his long drive through the Paris street in cold weather on his arrival Saturday. The President:

—Got up at 8 a. m. and breakfasted with Gen. Lauris Norstad, SHAPE commander, at the U. S. Embassy residence.

—Attended special services at the American Cathedral and sat through the 75-minute service in apparent excellent spirits. Ironically, the processional hymn was a 19th Century Russian tune.

—Sent a cable to Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru stating the United States was prepared "to stop nuclear tests immediately" on condition other nations did not take advantage of the interval "to conceal the threat of nuclear war." The cable was in reply to Nehru's appeal to America and Russia to halt the tests.

—Met for an hour with Gaillard and Foreign Minister Christian Pineau. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles sat in on the meeting.

Child Thrown from Mother's Arms, Dies in Auto Crash

By United Press

Thomas Diedrich, 2, Portsmouth, was thrown from his mother's arms and killed Sunday in a head on collision in Bellwood.

Other traffic fatalities in the state brought the United Press weekend count to at least 12.

The Diedrich child died when the car in which he was riding collided with one that apparently jumped over a dividing lane. Police said his parents were saved from death because they wore seat safety belts.

Rabbit Hunt Leads to Arrest Of 2 Teen-Agers

MURPHYSBORO, Ill. (AP)—A rabbit hunt in the wee hours led to the arrest of two Murphysboro teen-agers after a stolen car chase. Held in Jackson county jail here is Deon Weston, 15. The other boy, Kenneth Murray, 17, was injured in the wreck of a stolen car and was taken to a Carbondale hospital.

Jackson county authorities said the boys took a 1955 Dodge in Murphysboro and drove it to Herrin, ditching it in favor of a 1957 Cadillac with a shotgun in it.

Authorities said the boys drove to Hurst and bagged a rabbit with five shots on the outskirts of town. Hurst police had retired for the night but the shots aroused them. Meanwhile, authorities said, the boys burglarized a service station. Police picked up the trail and began chasing the stolen car at speeds of 70 miles an hour.

The stolen car failed to make a curve two miles east of Hurst and somersaulted over a 15-foot embankment, landing near the edge of the Big Muddy River. Murray was found injured outside the car. The dead rabbit was inside.

Weston fled, but turned himself in to Jackson county authorities here this morning.

Authorities said charges are pending against the youths.

Matter of FACT

Early typewriters were patented as devices to aid the blind. In the United States the first typewriter, called a typographer, was patented by William A. Burt in 1829. No example of this machine has survived. The first practical typewriter, and one that could be mass produced, was the work of three U.S. inventors, Christopher Latham Sholes, Samuel W. Soule and Carlos Glidden.

Five Killed in Plane Crashes; 2 Craft Missing

Air Force Aids Search for Plane With 3 to 7 Aboard

By United Press

Airplane crashes during the weekend claimed at least five lives, and rescue parties sought two missing planes with as many as eight persons aboard.

Three men were killed near Albern, Minn., when their plane crashed in a wilderness area. The private craft went down Friday night but the bodies were not discovered until Sunday.

Dead in the wreckage were L. Millar Witting, 54, owner of the Arrowhead Airway Co. at Hibbing, Minn., and pilot of the plane; Frank Keller, 47, and his brother, Paul, 38, all of Hibbing.

Two men were killed near Fenor Mo., in a crash of a plane they were trying out with the idea of purchasing it. The victims were Robert A. Puccetti, 28, St. Louis, a father of three children, and Richard D. Harness, 31, Fenton, the pilot and father of four children.

Air Force planes today aided in the search for a chartered twin-engine plane with three to seven persons aboard which was believed down on a flight from Reno, Nev., to San Francisco.

The plane was last heard from over Auburn, Calif., Sunday afternoon. The plane was chartered by the Town and Country Travel Service which arranges flights to the Reno gambling casinos.

Aboard the craft were the pilot, Ed Rost, the co-pilot and an undetermined number of passengers. The plane carried seven persons to Reno Saturday, but it was not known immediately how many persons were aboard when the plane took off again Sunday.

In Canada, rescuers sought a missing plane piloted by Chicago manufacturer Richard K. West. A Canadian air force pilot reported sighting what may have been the wreckage of the plane which is believed to have crashed Friday night.

West, a former president of the U. S. Naval Reserve Assn., was alone aboard the craft.

Six airmen narrowly escaped injury Saturday when an Air Force rescue flying boat crashed-landed in the surf north of Imperial Beach, Calif., after its right engine caught fire and the craft exploded. The crew members managed to jump to safety moments before the blast.

Place Embargo On Florida Fruit

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—A seven-day embargo was slapped on all citrus shipments out of Florida today at the height of the Christmas shipping season.

The embargo, imposed by the Florida Citrus Commission, resulted from last week's cold wave that sent temperatures in the citrus belt plunging below the 20-degree mark and caused an estimated 50 million dollars damage to citrus and other crops.

A sharp climb in prices for citrus already en route to the holiday market and a shortage of Christmas fruit were expected.

The commission, in an emergency meeting, also unanimously voted to prohibit the damaged fruit from being used in concentrate.

Attorney Files Motion for New Trial for Beck

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Dave Beck's defense attorney confirmed today that "misconduct of jurors" was one of the grounds or which he based a motion for a new trial for the Teamster boss convicted Saturday of grand larceny.

Beck, 63, was accused of embezzling $1,900 of Teamsters funds obtained from the sale of a union-owned Cadillac.

His attorney, Charles S. Burdell, said the motion did not refer to or imply intentional misbehavior on the part of any of the jury.

"It simply means that I will contend the state statute relating to the separation of jurors during the trial was not strictly adhered to," he explained.

The jury of seven men and five housewives had been kept together during the entire two weeks of the trial.

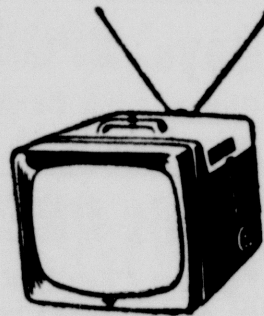

Shortly after the jury handed down its verdict Saturday, Burdell filed a motion for a new trial. If the motion is denied, he said, he will appeal the case to the state Supreme Court. He asked that arguments on the motion be heard as soon as possible.

Judge George H. Revelle said the case was "continued for sentencing, subject to call." The maximum penalty for grand larceny is 15 years imprisonment.

Pairings for Egyptian Holiday Cage Tourney

Will Begin In Davenport Gym
On December 26

Pairings for the annual Egyptian holiday tournament, to be held following Christmas Day in Davenport gym in Harrisburg, have been announced.

There will be two games each at sessions Thursday afternoon, Thursday night, Friday night and Saturday night starting Thursday, Dec. 26.

Harrisburg will see its first action at the afternoon session, meeting Du Quoin.

The pairings:

Thursday afternoon: Game 1—West Frankfort vs. Murphysboro; Game 2—Harrisburg vs. Du Quoin.

Thursday evening: Mt. Vernon vs. McLeansboro; Carbondale vs. Eldorado.

Friday night: Winners Games 1 and 2; winners games 3 and 4.

Saturday night: Finals, preceded by contest for third place.

Face Big Week Against Carbondale, West Frankfort and Centralia

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs, who ran over Johnston City, 77 to 50, at Davenport gym Saturday night, face their biggest week of the season starting tomorrow night when they travel to Carbondale to meet the Community high Terriers.

This weekend they'll be host to West Frankfort in a South Sevier contest Friday night, then travel to Centralia Saturday evening for another loop tilt.

The Bull Dogs bounced back well from their Friday night loss to Herrin to win their most decisive contest of the season and to give themselves a 3-3 mark for the early campaign.

Game Close First Half

The Indians were a pretty good team. In fact, it took undefeated Marion an overtime period to win over the Johnston City crew by two points.

Saturday night the Indians were an obstinate foe for the first two periods but the locals caught fire the third quarter and made the game a rout. Both teams played a fast game, to the delight of the fans on hand.

Johnston City pulled out to a 7-4 lead at the outset but Harrisburg closed the gap in time for the Bull Dogs to take the lead, 15-14, at the end of the first period. Although Harrisburg was never behind, the Indians stayed close during all of the second quarter which ended with the Bull Dogs ahead but three points, 30-27.

However, in the third period Harrisburg started hitting well and outscored the boys from Williamson county, 22 to 12, to go ahead 52-39, at the end of the frame. The torrid pace continued the last frame, when Johnston City was outscored 25 to 11.

After a rather inauspicious beginning, Coach John Dotson's boys looked fine in the contest. Dotson started Ray Hassett and Kinch Jones at forwards, Ron Maynard at center and Bob Pavelonis and Gary Stricklin at guards. The entire squad of 11 got in the game, with Don Beggs, John Stone and Bill Yates seeing a lot of action.

White of Johnston City was high scorer of the game with 20 points. Harrisburg scoring was well-balanced with Ron Maynard being

Harrisburg Gets Sectional Tourney; Regional Will Be Played at Eldorado

Eldorado, Metropolis, Mount Carmel and West Frankfort Winners Will Play Here

Saline county will be basketball headquarters for teams in the area on consecutive weeks come tournament time.

Harrisburg has been assigned a sectional tournament and Eldorado a regional it was revealed today in an announcement by the Illinois High School Association.

Eldorado will be one of the 60 regional sites, the tourneys to begin the week of March 3.

The following week sectional play gets underway and Harrisburg's Davenport gymnasium will be the scene of one of the 15 sectionals.

The announcement from the IHSAA revealed there will be 43 district tournaments, play starting Feb. 24, followed by the regionals, sectionals and the supersectional games are scheduled for March 18. The finals at Champaign are listed for March 22.

West Frankfort will host the supersectional in this part of the state.

The 15 sectional centers and the regionals assigned to each are:

Arlington Heights: Crystal Lake, Libertyville, Palatine and Waukegan.

Aurora East: Argo, Aurora West, DeKalb, and Elmhurst York.

Canton: Farmington, Pekin, Peoria Richwoods, and Princeville.

Champaign: Danville, Gibson City, Hoopeston and Urbana.

Decatur High School: Arcola, Clinton, Decatur MacArthur and Taylorville.

Geneseo: Aledo, Fulton, Galesburg and Moline.

Harrisburg: Eldorado, Metropolis, Mount Carmel and West Frankfort.

Harvey Thornton: Blue Island, Bradley Bourbonnais, Joliet and Wilmington.

LaSalle-Peru: Fairbury, Henry, LaSalle-Peru, and Morris.

Olney: Altamont, Effingham, Newton and Paris.

Pinckneyville: Anna, Belleville, Campbell Hill and Marion.

Quincy: Griggsville, West Pike, Macomb Western and Warsaw.

Rockford West: Polo, Rock Falls, Rockford Harlem, and Stockton.

Springfield Feitshans: Havana, Jacksonville, Springfield Lanphier and Williamson.

Wood River: Alton, Jerseyville, Litchfield and Salem.

In the supersectional round, the Aurora East and Thornton Harvey sectional winners will play at Aurora East; the Champaign and Decatur sectional winners at Decatur; the Arlington Heights sectional winner and the Chicago City champion at Northwestern University at Evanston; the Geneseo and Rockford West sectional winners at Moline; the Canton and LaSalle sectional champs at Bradley University at Peoria; the Olney and Wood River sectional winners at Salem; the Quincy and Springfield Feitshans sectional winners at Springfield; and the Harrisburg and Pinckneyville sectional winners at West Frankfort.

The 43 district centers will be: Anna, Atkinson, Bath, Brimfield, Broadlands Abl. De Land-Weldon, DePue, Elkville, Enfield, Farmersville, Findlay, Freeburg, Gridley, Hartsville, Homer, Jacksonville, Routh, Joy, Livingston, Manteno, Maple Park, Meredosia, Moweaqua, Nauvoo, Niantic, Odell, Onarga, Orangeville, Oswego, Palestine, Patoka, Poplar Grove, Ramsey, Rankin, Scales Mound, Seneca, Stanford, Steeleville, Stronghurst, Thomson, Venice, Waltonville, Wapella and Wenona.

Wildcats Romp 82-28, Over Shawneetown

Seventh Victory;
Indians Suffer
9th Straight Loss

Carrier Mills won with ease from an outmanned Shawneetown squad Saturday night, 82-28, on the Carrier Mills floor. The verdict left Carrier Mills in the list of the unbeaten with a 7-0 record. Shawneetown is 0-9.

Only in the opening minutes of play was there any sign of a contest. Carrier Mills led 3-1 early, midway in the quarter the score read 11-5, then in the latter part of the first period and the start of the second CM went on a 12-point spree before Shawneetown could count and bring the score to 23-7. Another 12-point spurge by the home club killed the game from an interest standpoint and it was just a matter of running out the clock. With 4:50 left in the third frame Carrier Mills sported a 40-plus margin of 51-10 and with a minute and a half to play in the game the margin was an even 50 points, and got even worse as the final count was 82-28.

Carrier Mills coach A. L. Willis had 11 players suited up and all saw action and broke into the scoring column with Rollins and Keene setting the pace with 23 and 18 points respectively. Cox and Hunsaker, with 6 each, were high for Shawneetown.

An unusual feature of the game was that neither club called a time out, so the game was completed as quickly as the rules allowed.

Carrier Mills will be idle until Friday when Eldorado calls.

Shawneetown has a full schedule this week, participating in the blind draw tournament at Equality Tuesday and Wednesday and plays at Galatia in a Greater Egyptian conference game Friday.

Edwardsville Captures Own Tourney Title; Herrin Edges Wood River, 63 to 61

By United Press

Edwardsville nipped Jacksonville in a battle of previously unbeaten teams at the Edwardsville Invitational tourney, and defending state champion Herrin, Marion, Pekin, West Frankfort, Clinton, Rockford East, Mount Vernon, Proviso, and Peoria Spalding maintained perfect records during the weekend pregame program.

Some other highly regarded clubs, however, found the going rough. Belleville was upended Friday night, Galesburg took its second defeat Saturday, Evanston was tumbled from the unbeaten ranks and Ottawa was upset Friday.

Edwardsville collected its fourth straight decision, 76-40, over Mount Olive in the first round of its tourney Friday, then came back Saturday to grab a breath-taking 70-69 verdict and hand Jacksonville its first defeat of the season. The Jacks had beaten Decatur St. Teresa, 65-58, Friday for their fourth victory.

Herrin collected two more victories to run its string to five, taking Harrisburg, 72-46, and Wood River, 63-61.

Marion Extends String

Wood River Friday had dumped Belleville, 53-51. Belleville came back Saturday to down Roxana, 59-41.

Marion also added two more victories to run its string to seven by clipping Centralia, 57-49, and Du Quoin, 55-45.

West Frankfort soaked Pinckneyville 66-49 Friday, but the hapless Pincks came back Saturday to score their first win of the season, 50-49, over Hillsboro.

Mount Vernon, Rockford East and Peoria Spalding all notched their fifth straight wins. Mount Vernon beat Benton, 57-39, Friday, East trimmed intra-city rival West, 76-63, and Spalding topped Peoria Richwoods, 59-41.

Pekin garnered its third straight victory, 52-37, over Lincoln.

Springfield Cathedral, a team that couldn't win a single game all last season, scored its fifth triumph without defeat, 65-29, over Jacksonville Routh.

Ottawa's Pirates took the second defeat of the season, 64-61, in an upset by Spring Valley Hall Friday.

Clinton's Maroons kept their record stainless with a 65-53 decision over Pontiac Friday.

Quincy Takes Two

Rock Island collected two victories, winning over Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Washington, 68-42, and over Clinton, Iowa, 62-45. Rock Island Alleman suffered its second defeat, 53-52, at the hands of Keewauke Friday then bounced back with a 62-47 win over Dunbar Saturday.

Quincy Notre Dame edged Madison, 50-47, at the Alton Invitational tournament, and Alton beat Ottawa Marquette 68-30. Then Notre Dame won the tourney title by stopping Alton, 66-65.

Quincy collected two victories, 75-56, over Macomb Western and, 60-44, over Pittsfield.

Six states now are using reflective automobile license plates as a nighttime safety device. They are Maine, Louisiana, Delaware, Wyoming, South Dakota and Minnesota. North Dakota joins the list in 1958.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.
(Written for NEA Service)

The Wise Men of old followed the star and found the Christ Child. We of the twentieth century pride ourselves on our wisdom. We have made a great deal of material progress in 2,000 years. Men have grown in their understanding of science and of human beings.

It seems so odd that we show so little progress spiritually in the same period of time. We still have the light of God to illuminate our way toward the Kingdom of God. Yet we turn from the light to ways of darkness.

Could it be that we do not want to be wise in the spirit? Do we merely give lip service to God? As we are filled with the Christmas spirit of love this year, let us apply our advanced wisdom to keep us on the way toward growing spiritually.

IN THE Service

Willard L. Lemons, whose wife, Velma, lives on Route 1, Ridgeway, recently was promoted to private first class in Germany where he is a member of the 291st Field Artillery Battalion. Lemons, a truck driver in the battalion's Battery B, entered the Army in December 1956 and received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. He arrived in Europe last June. The son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Lemons, he attended Ridgeway high school.

SIU Future Growth Inevitable, Report Says

CARBONDALE, Ill.—The latest published President's Report of Southern Illinois University says the future growth and development of SIU "seems almost inevitable."

But the Report cautions that Southern "must not be allowed to grow merely by accretion."

The 50-page booklet from the office of President D. W. Morris reviews SIU's progress from September, 1954, to August, 1956. The Report is prefaced with a warning that development must be carefully directed so the University can best serve students, the Southern Illinois area, and the state.

Among the notable advances made during the two-year period were "a growth in student population so dramatic as to attract national attention and by the same time almost frantic activity required to keep abreast of the tide of students."

During the period, SIU increased its land holdings to more than 2,900 acres and completed construction of the new University Library.

The Report also cites a steady and noticeable rise in "the academic 'tone' of campus life."

"Such a lively and demonstrable interest in knowledge and art is an absolute requirement in any seat of higher learning," the Report continues. "Without it physical expansion would be meaningless and unproductive, for universities still exist primarily to cultivate and train men's minds."
